

Our church is not accepting donations at this time. We are working to distribute the items we still have to people and areas still in need of supplies. Please check back on our Facebook page or this website to see if we possibly may collect more items at a later date. We thank you for your willingness to help. God bless you. Continue your prayers.